Proposal to reword the Campbell River Friendship Quilters' Guild Constitution to give us more of an art focus and reflect the atmosphere of the Guild
Current wording –

Item 2. The objective of the guild shall be:

- To cultivate friendly relationships and camaraderie of fellow quilters;
- To teach and learn from others, the art of quilting;
- To show warmth and compassion to others by donations of quilts, placemats and other items

Proposed wording –

Item 2. The objective of the guild shall be:

- To promote the art of quilting by offering inspiration and education
- To use the art of quilting to respond to the needs of the community
- To cultivate friendly relationships and camaraderie

Will be voted on at the May AGM

The May AGM is when we vote for a new executive. The Nomination Committee has worked hard and has volunteers for each of the positions available. However, if there is someone you would like to nominate, nominations will be requested from the members on the night of the AGM. We need to have a quorum of 30% of our membership before we can vote so please attend.

I would like to thank all the members that helped me make card holders for the C&A conference in Ottawa. Together we made 248 card holders. Great job guys!!!
Thanks Carol Seeley

NATIONAL QUILT MONTH-BLITZ

When? May 13th, 2006; 9:00-4:00pm

Where? Yucalta Lodge, main lobby

Why? To increase the guild's inventory of R.C.M.P. Comfort Quilts

Yucalta Lodge offers many amenities:

Central location, friendly hosts!, numerous plug-ins, tables, good temperature control facilities, good lighting, nearby washrooms.

Entrance through main lobby door. There is an unloading parking zone, plus the use of trolleys to assist with arrivals.

Parking is adequate, although our numbers may mean some parking will be along 2nd. Ave. Parking area is in front of the lodge (not behind, which is closer to the Thrift Shop.)

A bag lunch would be easiest, although there are nearby food outlets.

Drop-in, or come for the day!! Fabrics, batting, and direction will be provided

Blitz Director-Carol Seeley

Fabric assistant -Geri Syminton

Faye's Salmon Quiche Recipe

2 deep (9-inch) frozen pie shells
¼ Cup mayonnaise
¾ Cup sour cream (can use plain yogourt)
2 Tbsp. Flour
2 eggs, well beaten
½ Cup milk
1(7^{3/4} ounce) canned salmon, drained & flaked
8 ounces grated mozzarella cheese
8 ounces grated cheddar cheese
½ Cup chopped onion

-prebake pie shells according to package directions. Cool. Blend together sour cream, mayonnaise, flour, eggs and milk. Stir in salmon, cheeses, and onion. Divide evenly between pie shells. Bake at 350 degrees for 25-35 minutes.

We had this quiche at the recent retreat . It's easy, good warm or cold.

The Pillsbury Doughboy

Please join me in remembering a great icon of the entertainment community. The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 71. Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The grave-site was piled high with flours. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy, and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times he was still a crusty old man and was considered a roll model for millions. Doughboy is survived by his wife Play Dough, two children, John Dough and Jane Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly dad, Pop Tart. The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.

Our windup will be June 14th starting at 6:00 pm. Fran has once again volunteered to be our hostess at 3030 Willow Creek Road (at the end of Dahl road). Please bring some finger food to share, drinks if you want, a lawn chair, show and tell.

UFO's

UFO awards will be given out in the early fall so you have all summer to get these finished and shown to Fran. Fran is thinking up booby prizes for those people who never finish their registered UFO's so get sewing.

Our website is nearing completion. Big cheers for Jo-Anne Murray and her helpers who have persevered with this idea. We are all looking forward to the grand opening!
